WHAT:
1st Annual Niagara's Running of the Brides Event. Women dressed in wedding attire will chase 1 high profile "groom", Brett Ness from EZ Rock 105.7. A beach "Trash the Dress" photo session (the brides get into the water) will follow. You don't have to be an actual bride, just have access to a used wedding dress and want to be part of the 1st annual event. Professional videographers will be there and the footage will be put onto all the social media avenues.

WHEN:
Sunday, August 14th, 2011 - 1 pm

WHERE:
Meet at Double Deck Bus Depot, group photo in front of Niagara Falls & then take the Double Deck party bus to Sherkston Beach for a fun "Running of the Brides" & "Trash the Dress" photo session.

WHY: To bring recognition to the Niagara area as a beautiful alternative for a destination wedding and to raise donations for Wellspring Niagara, a local cancer support organization (WellspringNiagara.ca).

WHO:
Put on by ElopeNiagara.com, a Niagara based website company created by 2 local photographers (Kim Cartmell & Kathy White) to help the destination couple plan their Niagara wedding. Melanie Rijkers (photographer from the Netherlands who organized 99 brides chasing 1 groom on 09-09-09 is flying over to assist).
